Healing Pathway Phase 2

Where Two or More Gather is one of two parts of Phase 2 in the Healing Pathway program. It includes learning surface anatomy of the neck and back and practising specific healing sequences for these areas. Other aspects covered include the experience of group healing and support for the Practitioner's growth toward wholeness. Emphasize is on development of self as an instrument of healing. Phase 1 is a prerequisite. The workshop includes the following:

Content...

- ✚ Learning about the surface anatomy of the neck and back
- ✚ Learning and practising specific healing sequences for the neck and back
- ✚ Learning and practising other new techniques and sequences
- ✚ Learning and practising the basics of group healing

Discussion of the Practitioner's growth towards wholeness

Instructors

Sharon Yetman has been a Healing Pathway Instructor for the past 12 years. She has taught in five Canadian provinces and in Guatemala. She has been offering and receiving Healing Pathway sessions for 22 years and is grateful for the healing. Sharon is passionate about the work and brings enthusiasm, joy and a deep spirituality to her teaching.

Sharon is a participant and mentor in the Healing Hands ministry team at Highlands United Church in North Vancouver, BC.

Lorraine Struyk has been involved with Naramata and the Healing Pathway Society as a practitioner and instructor since 1993. She has integrated her Healing Pathway work with her background as a physiotherapist and extensive work in palliative care.

Lorraine shares her gifts with compassion and an open heart as a member of the Dunbar Ryerson United Church. She is passionate about the work and the realm of possibilities it brings for each of us.
