Instructors

Gale Glover

I have been active in healing work most of my life, first as a nurse and later in Healing Touch, then in the Healing Pathway. Since my introduction to this form of energy healing in 1993, I have been actively involved in learning more about it, and in offering it in our practice groups. I have taught all Phases of the Healing Pathway from BC as far east as Montreal, with small groups (4 people) to larger groups (24 people). To each workshop I bring my sense of humour, story-telling, compassion, and listening skills. From every workshop I have gained new knowledge, new insights into the depth and breadth of this gift of healing in people's lives, and always a renewed sense of awe at the presence of the Spirit in each person and in the ability of every individual to share this energy of Love with others.
