Instructors

Come be inspired by two amazing heart-centered facilitators with years of experience in this practice.

Ross White

Ross has been a United Church minister for 40 years serving congregations and camps across the prairies and throughout BC. He earned a Bachelor degree in Diaconal Ministry from St Stephen's College in 1988 and became a Healing Pathway Instructor in 2002. He is keenly interested in the practice of world religions in the area of death and dying and the spiritual foundation of Hospice principles having taught Healing Pathway in the past to Hospice workers in Vancouver. He lives in North Vancouver with his wife Jeannie and close to their three daughters and four grandchildren from whom they receive abundant joy.

Jan Morrissey

Jan has been involved with the Healing Pathway since 1999 and is now enthusiastically sharing the work as an instructor. She has a Master of Education degree and is a retired Kindergarten teacher. She is an active member of her home church, St. Andrew's United in Port Moody, and of the Tri-Cities Healing Ministry Team. She has taught Healing Pathway workshops in Canada and Guatemala and is currently serving on the Pathway Coordinating Circle.

The Invitation

Life is busy and at times things can feel overwhelming. Are you looking for a place of calm in the storm? Come and be in a safe quiet place as you learn about and explore energy in new ways. Leave feeling empowered to support yourself and others in the challenges of everyday life.

Join us in experiencing self-care techniques that focus on energy healing as a spiritual practice grounded in Christianity but present in all the wisdom teachings.

At this experiential workshop you will.

-  Connect into, and experience heart-centered energy
-  Share and receive energy sessions
-  Learn specific self-care practices: centering, grounding and meditation
-  Be part of a supportive and caring healing community
-  Learn and practise a healing sequence and specific techniques
