Instructors:

Sheila MacDermott

Sheila has been an active member of the Penticton United Healing Group since 1994. As a retired physiotherapist, she continues to use energy work as a volunteer in the church, her community and at the hospital. She is delighted to help others learn Healing Pathway energy work.

Kimiko Karpoff

Kimiko has been a Healing Pathways practitioner for more than nine years and has studied a variety of healing traditions. A diaconal minister in the United Church of Canada, Kimiko has shared healing work in contexts ranging from outreach ministries to youth retreats to congregations to individual hands-on pastoral situations. She shares her spiritual journey in words and images at scatterededsacred.com.
