

HEALING PATHWAY

Core Values

We ground our work in the core values of

- Compassion
- Love
- Honour
- Respect
- Trust
- Empowerment
- Inclusiveness

"As a Healing Pathway recipient, I was held in God's loving embrace through the anxiety of two catastrophic surgeries and my continuous healing journey. I believe that this prayerful, centering practice helped me to survive."

~ Pat (Ontario)

Healing in the Christian Tradition using an energy-based approach

Healing Pathway

- enables people to develop the gifts and skills of healing within the Christian tradition through a training program with 4 Phases.
- fosters the development of healing ministries in congregations and other communities (currently over 100 Canadian congregations involved)
- promotes well-being on physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual levels
- is a profound spiritual practice rooted in becoming a heart centred loving presence.
- changes lives of both practitioners and receivers.
- works within a clear code of ethics.

"Healing from the heart means to connect to the divine. When we allow the divine to work through us, infinitely more is possible."

~ Rochelle Graham

Curriculum

Healing Pathway training has four phases. Each Phase is a prerequisite to the next. Phases 1 & 2 are held in congregational or community settings, Phases 3 & 4 are held in a retreat setting. All workshops are experiential.

Phase 1 – An introduction

a 13-15 hour workshop introducing the basic concepts of healing within the Christian tradition.

Phase 2 – two separate workshops each 13-15 hours in length

Healing from the Heart –

deepening the healing experience through the heart centre

Where Two or More Gather – includes the surface anatomy of the neck and back and specific healing sequences for these areas.

Phase 3 - Communion of Saints

30-35 hour residential workshop

Includes advanced healing skills and further development of the practitioner.

Phase 4 – a year long Practicum with a mentor who is a graduate and experienced practitioner with the Healing Pathway program. This includes two 35-40 hour residential workshops at the beginning and end of the year.
