The Instructors

Kimiko Karpoff has been on a 25-year journey in practices of spiritual and energy healing. She is a practitioner and teacher with a goal of engaging you in your own healing, connecting deeply to source. She carries the Japanese lineage of Seiki healing and has studied a variety of modalities. She has facilitated Good Vibrations: The Energy of Resilience, where people gathered to connect, breathe, meditate and share love to the earth. A writer, photographer and diaconal minister, Kimiko shares her spiritual journey in words and images at scatterededsacred.com

Jan Morrissey has been involved with the Healing Pathway since 1999 and is now enthusiastically sharing the work as an instructor. She has a Master of Education degree and is a retired Kindergarten teacher. She is an active member of her home church, Inlet United in Port Moody, and of the Tri-Cities Healing Ministry Team. She has taught Healing Pathway workshops in Canada and Guatemala and is currently serving on the Coordinating Circle.

Phase 2: Healing from the Heart

This workshop is an opportunity to deepen the heart connection to God and to. Focus will be on increasing the Practitioner's self-awareness and self-understanding. New healing sequences and assessment procedures are introduced and practised, as well as effective use of dialogue to deepen the healing process.

Content...

- Practising the skill of being a heart-centred, healing presence,
- Deepening awareness of the physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual levels,
- Practicing specific healing sequences, including Heart of Christ Connection, Spiral Meditation, Headache Techniques.
- Reviewing and discussing the Code of Ethics, including Boundaries
- Deepening self awareness and understanding through exploration of spiritual practice and self-care
- Discussing the connection between spiritual practices - such as prayer, meditation, and worship - and healing ministry.

Phase 1 is a prerequisite.

The Healing Pathway Program, is overseen by the Healing Pathway Society of the United Church of Canada. It was created to encourage people to develop the gifts and skills of energy-based healing within the Christian tradition, and to foster the development of healing ministries within faith communities.

This training has been offered since 1993 and there are practice groups across Canada.
