The Instructors

Karen Peters has been involved with Healing Pathway since 2001. She now feels lead by the spirit to share this work as an instructor. She has been an active member of St. Andrew's United Church, Port Moody (now Inlet United) and the Tri-Cities Healing Ministry Team. She retired as a Dialysis Nurse in 2019 and has moved to Chilliwack. Now, as an active member of Carman United Church Healing Pathway Ministry, she helps lead the circle of practitioners there. Karen is rooted and grounded in love, energetically sharing this work. Karen is an active listener, compassionate and caring, and looks forward to shining a light on what may be needed for the wellness and spiritual journeys of others.

Jan Morrissey has been involved with the Healing Pathway since 1999 and is now enthusiastically sharing the work as an instructor. She has a Master of Education degree and is a retired Kindergarten teacher. She is an active member of her home church, Inlet United in Port Moody, and of the Tri-Cities Healing Ministry Team. She has taught Healing Pathway workshops in Canada and Guatemala and is currently serving on the Coordinating Circle.

Healing Pathway Phase 1

Phase 1 is an introduction to the basic concepts of healing hands within the Christian tradition, with an emphasis on learning to be a healing presence and instrument of God's healing power. No prerequisite. This workshop includes the following:

Content...

-  Discussion of the basic concepts of healing in the Christian tradition
-  Discussion of the traditional, scriptural, and spiritual sources of healing
-  Presentation and review of the Healing Pathway Code of Ethics
-  Discussion of the elements of self-care
-  Centring and grounding through prayer and meditation
-  Experience of being a heart-centred instrument of healing
-  Learning and practising a healing sequence and specific techniques
-  Discussion of the application of a healing ministry within a congregation or faith community

The Healing Pathway Program, is overseen by the Healing Pathway Society of the United Church of Canada. It was created to encourage people to develop the gifts and skills of energy-based healing within the Christian tradition, and to foster the development of healing ministries within faith communities.

This training has been offered since 1993 and there are practice groups across Canada.
