The Healing Pathway Program

was developed by the United Church's Naramata Centre in B.C., to enable people to develop the gifts and skills of energy-based healing within the Christian tradition, and to foster the development of healing ministries within faith communities.

Training has been offered across Canada, since 1993.

Healing Pathway Phase I

Phase I is an introduction to the basic concepts of healing hands within the Christian tradition, with an emphasis on learning to be a healing presence and instrument of God's healing power. This workshop includes the following:

Content...

- ~ Discussion of the primary basis for a healing ministry
- ~ Discussion of the traditional, scriptural, and spiritual sources of Christian centred healing
- ~ Brief introduction to the human energy system
- ~ Presentation and review of the Healing Pathway Code of Ethics, including boundaries
- ~ Discussion about the elements of self-care that support the physical, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual well-being of the practitioner
- ~ Centering and grounding through prayer and meditation, as preparation for offering healing hands
- ~ Experiencing being a heart-centred instrument of healing
- ~ Description, demonstration, and practice of a Healing Sequence and specific healing techniques, including:
- ~ Discussion about the application of a ministry of healing within the church and community

Instructors:

Debra Ede – Her adventure began with an Introduction to healing Touch in the 80's. Ever since, wonder, ponder and learning have led the way to the principles and practice of Healing Pathway. This allowed her to build the Foundation for human kindness and understanding with self, family and friends. Her involvement with Healing Pathway at Oasis practice group in Penticton brings great joy. This past three summers she helped realize the re-opening of Naramata Centre Healing House. Curiosity is her super power.

Judith Ann Donaldson - has been a passionate practitioner of the Healing Pathway program since 1994 and feels deeply blessed to share this work as an instructor. Over the years she has been fortunate to teach in Nepal, India and Guatemala. As an active member of the Pacific Spirit United Church Healing Ministry, Judith Ann has continued developing her practice in distance healing. She is retired obstetrical nurse and a spiritual director. Her particular interest is the spiritual awakening of both those who offer this Christ-centered work as well as the blessings for those who receive.
