The Instructors

Sharon Yetman has been offering and receiving Healing Pathway sessions for 29 years and is grateful for her own healing and opportunities to accompany others on their healing journeys. Since 2005 she has been a Healing Pathway instructor; sharing her knowledge and experience in five Canadian provinces and in Guatemala. She has been involved in the reopening of the Healing House at Naramata Centre. Sharon is passionate about this work and brings enthusiasm, joy, and a deep spirituality to her teaching. She is a participant and mentor in the Healing Hands ministry at Highlands United Church in North Vancouver.

For Debra Ede the adventure began with an introduction to Healing touch in the 80's. Ever since, wonder, ponder and learning have led the way to the principles and practice of Healing Pathway. This allowed her to build the foundations for human kindness and understanding with self, family and friends. Her involvement with Healing Pathway at Oasis practice group in Penticton brings great joy. This past three summers she helped realize the re-opening of Naramata Centre Healing House. Curiosity is her superpower.

Healing Pathway Phase 2

Where Two or More Gather is one of two parts of Phase 2 in the Healing Pathway program. It includes learning surface anatomy of the neck and back and practising specific healing sequences for these areas. Other aspects covered include the experience of group healing and support for the Practitioner's growth toward wholeness. Emphasis is on the development of self as an instrument of healing. Phase 1 is a pre-requisite. The workshop includes the following:

Content

- Learning about the surface anatomy of the neck and back
- Exploring the body, mind and soul connections to the back and the neck
- Learning and practising specific techniques and healing sequences for the neck, back, and head
- Learning and practising the Sacred Cross technique
- Learning and practising the basics of group healing
- Discussion of the practitioner's self-care and growth towards wholeness
- Reviewing and discussing the Code of Ethics
